

Constitution of Mock Trial at the University of Iowa

Date Submitted: May 31, 2021

Article I. Purpose

Mock Trial at the University of Iowa, hereafter known as “MT@UI,” is established for the purpose of fostering public speaking and trial advocacy skills in its members, and for educating them about the American legal system. The organization utilizes its skills and experience to compete against other colleges and universities around the nation.